COURSE CATEGORIZATION

At Language Fluent we have curated our course according to the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) which is the standardized test to prove your English language proficiency.

The International English Language Testing System, or IELTS, is an international standardized test of English language proficiency for non-native English language speakers. It is jointly managed by the British Council, IDP, IELTS Australia and Cambridge Assessment English, and was established in 1989. IELTS is one of the major English-language tests in the world.

IELTS is accepted by most Australian, British, Canadian, European, Irish and New Zealand academic institutions, by over 3,000 academic institutions in the United States, and by various professional organisations across the world.

We start from the basics and the specifications are described below:-

Reading

After systematic training, the student will be able to read texts which are descriptive, factual, analytical, or historical in nature and includes diagrams, graphs, illustrations, etc., which are taken from textbooks, journals, novels, newspapers, as well as various other resources.

Writing

Students will be able to summarize various media resources, books, graphs, illustrations, or records and form a narrative or concept to write on them in accordance with the requirement. They will be also able to write 300 words or well-detailed 2000+ words essay according to their practice.

Listening

Students will be able to encapsulate information from various monologues, news broadcasts, conversations, recordings, or from any other hearing substance in the language and decipher the meaning associated with them as well as convert it to a written form if required.

Speaking

Students will be able to hold face-to-face English interviews, speak at length on familiar or unfamiliar topics, participate in a structured discussion on diverse topics, confidently communicate with international citizens, and speak fluently with native English speakers or proficient speakers.
